SONIC DELIGHTS FOR YOUR LISTENING PLEASURE

SONOPHILIA PRESENTS

"Among some tribes of the Republic of Chad, the month is lunar but the Sun governs the succession of both days, seasons and years.

The same word (ntangu) means both sun and time. If the Sun suddenly ceased to shine, all life would perish. The air would freeze, and the Earth, transformed into an empty wilderness, a ball of rock and ice, would wander aimlessly through the interstellar darkness."

Sol Rezza is an Argentinian radio producer and sound designer focused on the transformation of field recordings and composing with virtual instruments.

Through various techniques she seeks to create strange sound tales that are made to be broadcast on radio and / or internet or to be exposed in different environments ranging from museums, festivals, cultural venues and public spaces.
